

Place all the nine pieces shown scattered around the field into the bounds of the field. The pieces can be rotated but it is not allowed to overlap them in the final combination.

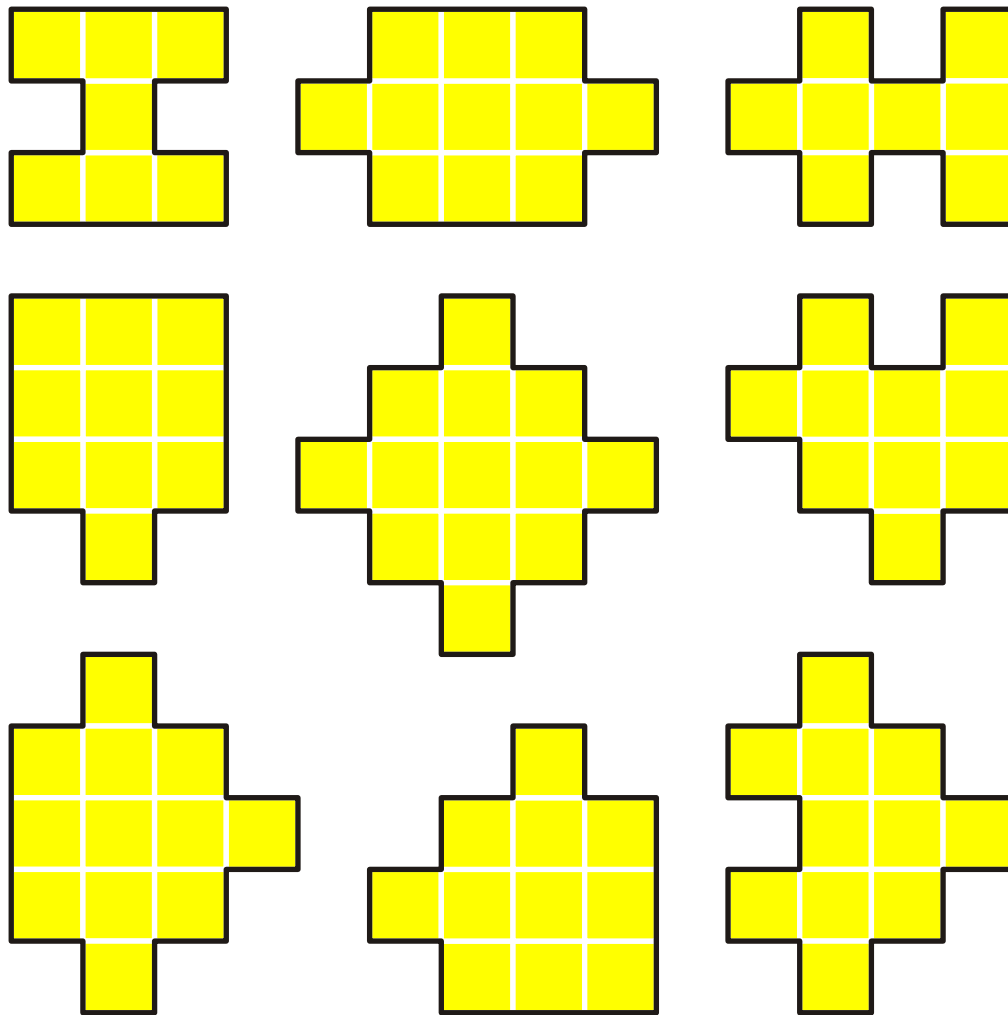

*This puzzle was presented at the 5th 24 Hours Puzzle Championship, May 22-23, 2004, Budapest, Hungary.

Last Updated: October 6, 2005

Page 1 of 3

Almost a unique solution, not counting rotations and the two upper right pieces interchange, is shown in the illustration.

To produce the pieces first print them out. Then follow the diagram shown above - from step 1 to step F (finish).