

PHU2LUL9

Can you come up with an idea what does this "wording" really mean?

PHUSLULP
PHUSLULP

In fact this wording represents two words usually written on many doors. Imagine this is a glass door. Reading every second letter starting from the leftmost "P", you will see "PULL". Reading every second letter in the backward direction starting from the mirrored "P" at right, you will see mirrored "PUSH".

Nob Yoshigahara claimed he was inspired to this puzzle while visiting a cafe and looking outside through its windows and doors.