

Treasure of Classic
and Modern Puzzles

Pencil 'n' Paper Puzzles

Puzzling Journey

The goal of this puzzle is to draw a path from A to B so that it goes through each empty square of the board only once and has no self-crossings. Your path must go horizontally and vertically (never diagonally), and it has to avoid the four squares with the mushrooms in them.

There is an additional condition: the second square of the path must be exactly under the A square as shown in the illustration.

