

Six different snapshots are scattered around the composition of three cubes - as shown in the illustration.

All snapshots except one are taken from the three cubes. Can you figure out the snapshot from among A-F which doesn't belong to the set?

The wrong snapshot is C. The illustration shows what it should be instead.